THE SUPER AUSSIES

With the many specialised wine regions of Australia, it is no surprise that Australia is accountable for a variety of high range wines. Experience our selection.

- THE DEAD ARM SHIRAZ - d'Arenberg - McLaren Vale - 2016 105
Dead Arm is a vine disease due to which an 'arm' of the vine slowly becomes reduced to dead wood. That side may be lifeless and brittle, but the grapes on the other side, while low yielding, display amazing intensity.
- BIN 311 - Penfolds Estate - Chardonnay - 2017 105
Bin 311 Chardonnay truly reflects the winemakers' mantra 'we always go where the fruit grows best and where it best suits style'. In 2017, the fruit sourcing has moved to cool-climate multi-regional.
- BIN 28 KALIMNA - Penfolds Estate - Shiraz - 2016 115
First made in 1959, Bin 28 is named after the famous Barossa Valley Kalimna vineyard purchased by Penfolds in 1945 and from which the wine was originally sourced.
- CROFT - Henschke - Adelaide Hills - Chardonnay - 2018 120
Fifth-generation winemaker consisting of Stephen Henschke and his wife Prue. The chardonnay vineyard, has taken its name from Frederick Croft, an orchardist who took up a neighbouring property in 1938.
- GILES - Henschke - Adelaide Hills - Pinot Noir - 2014 144
Stephen, and Prue Henschke purchased a property in the Adelaide Hills. The pinot noir vineyard has been named after Charles Giles, an early pioneer whose descendants had managed the property as an apple orchard.
- VASSE FELIX - Heytesbury - Margaret River - Chardonnay - 2017 186
2017 was a cooler and later vintage than the previous 10 years; a year of elegant, perhaps slightly lighter bodied wines, though ripe in flavour, vibrant and very perfumed.
- VASSE FELIX - Tom Cullity - Margaret River - Cabernet Sauvignon - 2015 275
Dr Tom Cullity was a respected Cardiologist. He discovered the great table wines of Europe in the 1950s while in Britain. Upon returning home, Tom set himself a mission to make fine wines in Western Australia.
- CYRIL - Henschke - Adelaide Hills - Cabernet Sauvignon - 2016 345
This wine carries the name of Stephen's father, tephon Henschke's (1924-1979), as a tribute to one of Australia's outstanding winemaking pioneers. Cyril planted cabernet sauvignon at Henschke's Eden Valley vineyard in the 60s.
